Arriving in the district of Bad Kreuznach

Welcome to the district of Bad Kreuznach

Greetings

Dear users,

I am very pleased to welcome you to our district of Bad Kreuznach.

The word "integration" is of Latin origin and means renewal. Children, adolescents, women and men seeking protection in Europe are starting a new life and have found a home here.

Every start in a foreign country also means learning a lot of new things: whether language, culture, bureaucracy, the school system and training system or the world of work.

With the Integreat app, we want to help you to settle in more easily in our region. The platform offers you valuable information, such as addresses and contact persons for important areas such as health, family, children, housing, culture or sport. You are therefore welcome to use the information on the portal and seek advice and help from the above-mentioned organisations.

The app is your ideal digital everyday guide! You can access information on your concerns or needs at your own pace with just a few clicks or using the search function.

Welcome to the district of Bad Kreuznach! I hope you enjoy discovering and getting to know us!

Best regards

Yours

Bettina Dicks

District Administrator

Dear users of the Integreat app,

It is a pleasure to welcome you here. We want to make your start in our district easier - no matter where you have come from and for what reason. Leaving home and moving to another country brings many changes. You have a lot of things to do and no doubt have countless questions. Our Integreat app is the ideal platform for anyone who is new to the region. You can find the most important information on health, housing, language, education, work, childcare and much more at the click of a button.

Everything you need to know about our district is summarised in this digital guide. In this way, we would like to help you get to know life here better. The multilingual content gives you the opportunity to become active yourself and find out about all the things that are of interest to you.

The app is constantly updated. So stay curious and check back from time to time to keep up to date. Become part of the Integreat community.

I hope you enjoy discovering the many and varied information provided by Integreat and that this portal helps you to quickly feel at home in the district of Bad Kreuznach.

Best regards

Yours

Oliver Kohl

Living together in Germany

The Basic Law

There are rules in every country. All people must abide by them. The most important law for Germany is the  Basic Law. It is the constitution of the Federal Republic of Germany. These rules determine how people live together in Germany.

The Basic Law states that every person is a free and self-determined individual. This is stated in Articles 1 to 19 of the Basic Law ( catalogue of basic rights).

- Here you can find the Basic Law in 11 languages: Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Italian, Persian, Polish, Russian, Serbian, Spanish, Turkish.
- This is the German constitutional state. You can watch it in this film  German, Dari, Arabic, English, French, Pashto, Urdu.

Universal Declaration of Human Rights

Human rights are important rights. They apply at all times and to all people all over the world. Human rights are rights that everyone has because they are human. They protect the dignity of every human being. They are the same for all people. They make no distinction.

Article 2 of Allgemeinen Erklärung der Menschenrechte der Vereinten Nationen of 10 December 1948 states: "Everyone is entitled to all the rights and freedoms set forth in this Declaration. Without distinction of any kind. Without distinction of any kind, such as colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status."

There are 30 articles of human rights. Here are the most important ones:

- All human beings are of equal value.
- Everyone is entitled to their own opinion.
- Everyone has the right to peace and security.

You can find the Universal Declaration of Human Rights here.

Children's rights

Children need special protection. That is why children have special rights. The individual rights of children are set out in Kinderrechtskonvention . It was adopted by the UN General Assembly in 1989 and subsequently confirmed by 196 states. The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child has 54 articles.

- The 10 most important children's rights are explained here: German/Arabic and German/Persian.
- Further information can also be found in the  Handbook Germany.

About Integreat

Integreat is a multilingual guide. It is designed to support both newly arrived and long-time residents. The editors strive to use readable and easily understandable language. For this reason, the guide avoids gender-specific language. The texts are intended to address anyone interested in the topic.

Here you will find important addresses, contact persons and tips and tricks that can help you find your way around.

Each chapter of the guide covers a different topic, from arrival, everyday life, and housing to jobs, training, and emergency assistance. The information and services change and are updated regularly.

The app can also be used offline if internet access is unavailable. The app updates automatically as soon as the mobile device is back online.

The Integreat app can be used:

- online and offline
- in several languages
- on the computer, smartphone or tablet.

The content of the Integreat app Bad Kreuznach is constantly updated and expanded with local information.
