

Federal Employment Agency

If your asylum procedure is still ongoing or if you are tolerated, the employment agency is your point of contact for everything to do with training and work. It will help you to find a job and offers further training opportunities.

The agency will also advise you on how you can have foreign qualifications recognised, provide information on language courses and support you in applying for a work or training permit.

Are you recognised? Then the job centre is your contact for advice and placement in the labour market.
