There is a specific contact point for refugees:

They advise people who are here as refugees and would like to study.
This is offered:

- German courses: For those who would like to study but do not yet know enough German.
- Counselling: We give advice and help with questions.
- Help with starting your studies: We provide support on how to apply for a degree programme.
- Support during your studies: We are there to help and answer questions while you are studying.
- Discussions about career plans: We work with Professor Dr Karin Birkner to discuss what career options are available.
