City of Geestland

Mayor: Gabi Kasten

Population: approx. 32,000

Greeting from Mayor Gabi Kasten

Dear new residents,

Welcome to the city of Geestland!

With 356 square kilometres, Geestland is the second largest municipality in the federal state of Lower Saxony (in terms of area). Around 32,000 inhabitants live here, spread over a total of 16 villages. Geestland was created in 2015 from the merger of the city of Langen and the community of Bederkesa.

We are a colourful and diverse city - with exciting sights and activities. Whether the Ochsenturm in Imsum, the Moor-Therme in Bad Bederkesa or our numerous lakes: There is much to discover here!

The INTEGREAT app is designed to help you find your way around your new surroundings.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us. We are here to help you in word and deed to make the start of your new phase of life as easy as possible.

Kind regards

Gabi Kasten
Mayor of the City of Geestland

The municipality of Beverstedt introduces itself

The content of this page was written in German and translated using artificial intelligence. The read-aloud function is also AI-generated.

The municipality of Beverstedt was founded in 2011. It consists of eleven villages. These are Appeln, Beverstedt, Bokel, Frelsdorf, Heerstedt, Hollen, Kirchwistedt, Lunestedt, Stubben, Wellen and Wollingst. The municipality is very rural in character. It covers an area of around 20,000 hectares with almost 14,000 inhabitants. There are railway stations in Stubben and Lunestedt, which are on the line between Bremen and Bremerhaven. Frelsdorf also has a railway station on the line between Bremerhaven and Bremervörde. On weekdays, a regular bus service runs every hour between Beverstedt and Bremerhaven. There is also a shared taxi service within the municipality. The many clubs offer the opportunity to take part in many sporting and cultural activities. There are two outdoor swimming pools in Bokel and Lunestedt.

 Opening hours:

Monday - Thursday 9:00 - 11:30 a.m.

The office "Welcome Point" was founded by the municipality Wurster Nordseeküste. With the idea of helping refugees unbureaucratically. The Welcome Point team looks after refugees who need help with official documents. It helps with filling out forms and tries to answer any questions. If necessary, the team contacts the relevant authorities. The team also takes care of registrations for integration courses. It sends the registrations to the relevant authorities and contacts the language course organisers if they respond. For all other questions and problems, the team at Welcome Point will endeavour to find a solution.
