

Learn German yourself (online)

You can learn German with your mobile phone or computer. Here are some good offers:

- The onSET online language placement test helps you to check your German level.
- The Ankommen app has a course for your first few weeks in Germany.
- The Language Guide shows you important words
- The Goethe-Institut has lots of free exercises and apps, for example: Deutschtrainer A1Übungen, Deutsch im Beruf, Die Stadt der Wörter
- The VHS learning portal offers German courses from A1 to B1.
- On Deutsch-Info you will find German courses from A1 to B2.
- Mein Deutschbuch has many offers for learning German.
- Deutsch-Uni Online \(DUO\) has learning programmes from A1 to C2.
- Deutsche Welle offers many online language exercises.
- DaFür has online modules and apps.
- You can find important words for professions at Meine Berufserfahrung.
- AsylPlus Deutsch lernen provides an overview of all German learning programmes.

Many participants also recommend:

On "Deutsch mit Marija", a YouTuber explains special features of the German language and gives tips.

The YouTube channel Hallo Deutschschule shows A1 to B2 German with animated films.

Deiaa Abdullah gives German lessons in Arabic on YouTube. He gives tips and talks about everyday life in Germany.

<https://de.duolingo.com/> has lots of fun exercises for spelling.