

Local elections 2025

Local elections 2025 in Düsseldorf

After the local elections on 14 September 2025, the results are known. You can see which party will be represented in the city council and district councils and how strongly here: 🌐 In the election for Lord Mayor, no candidate received enough votes to be directly elected. The run-off election will therefore take place on Sunday 28 September 2025. You can choose between two candidates. Polling stations will be open again on this day from 8 am to 6 pm. If you are eligible to vote, you will have received a polling card for the local elections. It is important that you keep this. You will also need it for the run-off election.

Information on what a local election is can be found at 🌐 here. It explains the procedure and describes who is allowed to vote.

Election assistant (Wahlhelfer*in)

Many volunteers are needed for the election. The volunteers help with the organisation and counting on election day. They are called poll workers. To become a poll worker, you must be authorised to vote in the election. 🌐 You can register as a poll worker for Düsseldorf here.
