

Counselling centre: Labour advice centre

Are you unemployed?

Are you about to lose your job?

Is your work insecure or risky?

You can get free advice here.

You will receive support with

- filling out applications
- dealing with unemployment
- qualification
- looking for a new job
- dealing with the employment agency or job centre
- finding offers of help
- the search for therapy offers
- job applications

You can also get help with language learning.

And there is a computer here that you can use free of charge. For example, to write job applications.
