Are you new to Germany? Here you will find practical tips and advice for everyday life.

Tiger mosquitoes in Fürth

Info poster on the tiger mosquito as PDF download \(German\)

The "Asian tiger mosquito" continues to be monitored in Fürth on behalf of the city by the company Biogents AG and controlled by the pest control company APC AG.

Why is it so important to monitor and control tiger mosquitoes?

The tiger mosquito is a potential vector of various diseases, such as chikungunya fever, dengue fever and Zika. Apart from the potential danger as a disease vector, the tiger mosquito is an extremely aggressive, diurnal mosquito species that can make your carefree life in the garden a living hell.

What do tiger mosquitoes look like?

Asian tiger mosquitoes (Aedes albopictus) are relatively small and have a black body. A silvery-white line runs down the centre of the head and continues down the chest.

Report any suspicious mosquito:

You can send suspicious mosquitoes to the Biogents company. You can send photos to tigermuecke@biogents.com, but please make sure that the photos are very well exposed and very sharp. The back of the mosquito should also be clearly visible.

How can you help in the fight against tiger mosquitoes?

Your help is very important to minimise the spread of tiger mosquitoes.

Everyone can carry out the following measures in their garden:

Eliminate breeding sites: Do you have containers on the balcony, window or in the garden that can fill up with rainwater? For example, buckets, pots, watering cans, bird baths? These can become breeding grounds. Therefore, all containers must be stored in such a way that no water can accumulate in them. Containers with standing water must be emptied regularly - at least once a week. If you pour the contents into a flower bed, for example, any mosquito larvae in the water will die due to dehydration.

Cover breeding sites: Seal your water reservoirs (rain barrels, cisterns) well with a tight-fitting, close-meshed net or a lid. Constructions that prevent this (e.g. overflows, gutters or drainpipes that reach far into the rain barrel) should be removed. Tiger mosquitoes exploit even the smallest of loopholes.

Some water reservoirs cannot be well covered or emptied regularly (e.g. gullies, cisterns, rain barrels). These can be treated with BTI (Bacillus thuringiensis israelensis). Please ask your local DIY store about this.

Mosquito traps: You can equip your garden yourself with e.g. BG-Mosquitaire or and BG-GAT traps. You can also enquire at your local DIY store.

Thank you for your help!

Conclude contracts

In Germany, freedom of contract applies. For example, if you want to rent a flat, have electricity in your home, use a smartphone or go to a gym, you must conclude a contract orally or in writing. Pay attention to the content of the contract: How much does the contract cost? Are there monthly costs? Do the costs increase after a few months? How long does the contract run for? Does it renew automatically? How long is the cancellation period? Compare different offers carefully and take your time to decide.

Contracts are binding and must be honoured. They can usually only be cancelled within the notice period. If you are not sure that you can pay the costs, do not sign! Debts can quickly build up.

 Do not sign anything that you cannot read or do not understand. You may be signing a contract or agreement that you did not want. Don't let anyone pressure you into signing anything! Do not sign any contracts over the phone. If you have signed something, you sometimes have 2 weeks to cancel it. Do something immediately! If you need support, go to the consumer advice centre.

Repair and maintenance

An electrical appliance, lamp, blender or children's toy no longer works? Then it doesn't always have to be thrown away straight away. You can often do small repairs yourself! You may be able to find free help in your neighbourhood.

Repair cafés provide materials and tools. Volunteers help with the repairs. This not only saves money. It's also good for the environment. Of course, you can also help others if you have experience in the craft or technical field.

A Fab Lab is a workshop where you can tinker, repair, construct and use machines. You can get help from experts.

Neighbourhood craft help

Opening hours, public holidays and time

Opening hours

Most large grocery shops in our region are open from Monday to Saturday from 08:00 in the morning until 20:00 in the evening.

Shops in the city centres are open from 10:00 in the morning until 20:00 in the evening.

Smaller shops often have shorter opening hours.

Sometimes there is also a lunch break.
Almost all shops are closed on Sundays.
Exceptions are bakeries and petrol stations.

💡 Buses and trains run at different times on Sundays and public holidays!

Public holidays in the region

Nobody works on a public holiday and all shops are closed.
There are public holidays that are the same everywhere.
There are also public holidays that are different in every federal state.
Bavaria has 13 public holidays.
Most of them are Christian church holidays.

- 01 January: New Year
- 06 January: Three Wise Men
- March/April (changing date): Good Friday
- March/April (after Good Friday): Easter Sunday and Easter Monday
- 01 May: Labour Day
- May (changing date): Ascension Day
- May/June (alternating date): Whit Sunday and Whit Monday
- May/June (alternating date): Corpus Christi
- 15 August (only in towns and communities with many Roman Catholics): Assumption Day
- 03 October: Day of German Unity
- 01 November: All Saints' Day
- 25 December: Christmas Day
- 26 December: Second Christmas Day

The public holidays with changing dates can be found on the Internet for the respective year.

Time of day

Central European Time (CET) applies in Germany.
Daylight saving time begins on the last Sunday in March.
At 02:00 at night, the clocks are set forward to 03:00.
Daylight saving time ends on the last Sunday in October.
At 03:00 at night, the clocks are set back to 02:00.

Mobility

You can easily get around the city and the district of Fürth by public transport (bus, S-Bahn and U-Bahn).

You can find information in several languages here.

A healthy, cheaper and environmentally friendly alternative is cycling.

Public transport

Link Video "Local public transport in Fürth \(ÖPNV\)"

Buses, underground trains, suburban trains and regional trains run regularly in Fürth and the district. For connections to more distant cities, you can use trains and long-distance buses. You can also take a bicycle on certain modes of transport. NightLiners run on Saturdays, Sundays, public holidays and bridge days from 01:00 - 05:00 and have special routes. There are extra school buses for the journey to school in certain areas, ask at the school.

You can find a timetable for the city of Fürth and the towns in the district of Fürth and region either at the bus stops, on the Internet and in the VGN app, which you can download to your smartphone.

💡 Travelling without a ticket, so-called fare dodging, is punished! You must have a valid ticket for every journey. Otherwise you will pay a fine of €60.

Tickets

💡 For many people, the Deutschlandticket for €63 (with FürthPass concessions) will be the cheapest ticket, so do the maths. Currently you can only buy the Deutschlandticket online. You can do this at the VAG, for example. It is a subscription that is renewed every month if you do not cancel it. Remember to make sure that you have enough money in your account on the day of the direct debit! You can use it on public transport throughout Germany, but not on ICE or IC trains!

💡 It is important for asylum seekers that you cannot move freely throughout Germany. If you are away from your accommodation for several days, you must have this authorised by the immigration authorities.

- You can buy a ticket from a ticket machine or special sales points. You will find ticket machines at every underground and S-Bahn station. You can also buy tickets from the driver on the bus. You must stamp the ticket for it to be valid! You can also buy tickets on the website or via the VGN app.
- There are different fare zones. The price changes depending on how far you travel.
- If you use public transport more often, find out about cheaper tickets. For example, there is a four-trip ticket, a ten-trip ticket, a day ticket, monthly tickets or the Mobicard.
- You do not have to pay the full price for children. Children up to the age of 5 travel free of charge and there are discounted tickets for children aged 6-14.
- You can also use one ticket to change between different modes of transport (bus, underground, S-Bahn). The exception is short-distance travel (underground two stops, bus 4 stops). Check how far you are allowed to travel.

Citizens of the city of Fürth who have the Fürth-Pass can submit an application to obtain cheaper tickets. .

A reduction in travel costs for recipients of social benefits (asylum seeker benefits, citizen's allowance, etc.) as in the cities of Fürth and Nuremberg (Fürth-Pass, Nürnberg-Pass) does not exist in the district of Fürth.

There are parking spaces for cars (Park+Ride) and bicycles (Bike+Ride) at the stops of the S-Bahn and regional trains. You can park there free of charge and change to the train.

School buses

If there is no public transport connection to the schools in the district, there are school buses. You can find the timetables here.

Bicycle

Cycling is healthy, protects the environment and often gets you to your destination faster in the city. What's more, cycling costs nothing. You can find information in various languages here.

- Children up to the age of 8 must ride on the pavement, children up to the age of 10 may use the footpaths with their bikes
- Talking on a mobile phone while riding is prohibited
- Point with your outstretched arm when turning right or left
- Cycling under the influence of alcohol can mean that you lose your driving licence

Driving licence

Driving licence

Would you like to drive in Germany and have a driving licence from your country of origin? If you have a foreign driving licence, you may drive in Germany with it for up to 6 months after registering with the registration office.

If the driving licence is not in Latin script, you also need an international driving licence or a certified translation of the national driving licence.

You must always have your driving licence with you when driving. Driving without a valid driving licence is a punishable offence in Germany.

After 6 months, certain types of driving licence must be transferred. Check whether the driving licence can also be recognised in Germany or whether you have to pass a theoretical and practical driving test again. The theory test can be taken in many different languages, not just German. Special rules apply to driving licence categories such as HGVs and others, so check with the driving licence office.

Driving licences from EU and EEA countries with category B (car) do not need to be rewritten if they are valid for an unlimited period. If your driving licence expires, you can exchange it with an application. You need:

- Application
- Copy of driving licence
- Copy of identity card/passport
- Current biometric passport photo

If you come from a third country and would like to exchange your driving licence, you must take a theoretical and practical test at a driving school (there are exceptions for some countries). You will need the following to exchange your licence

- Application
- Copy of the foreign driving licence
- Certified translation of the foreign driving licence (e.g. from ADAC, sworn interpreter)
- Copy of the identity card/passport
- Current biometric passport photo
- eye test
- First aid course

💡 Information for asylum seekers: Before you register with a driving school, first check whether you are allowed to take a driving test. Proof of identity is required for this!

General information on driving licences in several languages can be found here.

💡 Think about transferring your licence in good time, the processing takes some time.

Insurances

Private liability insurance

If you cause damage to a person in Germany, the law states that you must pay compensation, even if you or your children did not do it on purpose. This applies to personal injury, property damage and financial losses in the private sphere. For example, if you cause a traffic accident on your bicycle or if your child breaks a window pane with a ball.

You can take out private liability insurance to pay for this damage for you and your family. You do not have to have liability insurance, but it is the most important private insurance and is highly recommended. Otherwise, you could face high costs in the event of a claim. Many landlords and landladies want you to have private liability insurance.

💡 Read the contract carefully, compare the costs, pay attention to the sum insured and the term. If you don't understand something, seek advice. Report any damage to the insurance company immediately. The insurance company must clarify whether you are liable for the damage.

You can find information in different languages here:

🌐 www.make-it-in-germany.de

🌐 www.handbook-germany.de

🌐 www.verbraucherzentrale.de

Motor vehicle liability insurance

In Germany, anyone who owns a vehicle and wants to drive it (vehicle owner) must take out motor vehicle insurance. Without this insurance, the car cannot be registered. This covers any damage you cause to other vehicles or people. This also applies to motorbikes.

You can find information in various languages here:

🌐 www.make-it-in-germany.de

🌐 www.handbook-germany.de

Mobile phone, Internet, WLAN

Germany has the international dialling code 0049 or +49. The area codes and mobile phone numbers start with 0 (for example Fürth: 0911). When calling from abroad or using +49, the 0 is omitted (for example 0049 911).

Mobile phone

There are two different mobile phone contracts in Germany: Prepaid contract and fixed-term contract. The prepaid contract has no fixed contract term. You load an amount of money onto your mobile phone. With a fixed-term contract, there is a minimum contract period: this contract is automatically renewed if you do not cancel it. If you do not want the contract to be renewed automatically, you must cancel in writing. Pay attention to the cancellation period. With fixed-term contracts, you usually get a mobile phone at a very favourable price. It is not free, you pay for it through the cost of the contract!

Before you sign a contract, inform yourself and think about what you need and what is particularly important to you. Important questions when concluding a contract:

- How high is the basic fee? Does the fee increase after a certain period of time?
- Is there a minimum monthly turnover (minimum costs per month)?
- How long does the contract run for (e.g. 12 or 24 months)?
- When do I have to cancel if I don't want to extend the contract?
- How much does it cost to switch and deactivate?
- What is the billing frequency (60/1, 10/10)?
- How much does a minute cost (external / own network)?
- How much does a mobile phone with a contract cost, how much without a contract?
- How much does the Internet cost, how much data is available?
- How much do international calls cost?

Think about which flat rate is best for you and pay attention to what is not included in the flat rate and what costs are then incurred.

Internet

You can get Internet access for your home from various providers. Many people only have Internet access via their smartphone. Check the contract conditions, costs and data volume.

If you don't have internet access, ask at the library. You can often access the internet there free of charge if you have a user card.

You can use computers at the Agentur für Arbeit Fürth to look for a job, including at the careers information centre:

Public, free WLAN hotspots (WIFI)

Free WLAN is available at many locations (hotspots) in the city of Fürth and the district of Fürth. Use is free and you do not need a password to log in. You can find the hotspots by entering your address or location on this website:

Information for asylum seekers

Are you currently living in the AnKER centre in Zirndorf? You can use BayernWLAN here.

Current account

Current account

A current account is a personal account with which you can make payments via the bank. Your money is safe in your current account and available at all times.

With a current account you can:

- make transfers
- Receive cashless payments (payments from public authorities such as social benefits are often made cashless, i.e. by bank transfer)
- set up standing orders
- participate in SEPA direct debits
- make cashless payments with the EC/Maestro card
- Withdraw cash from cash machines
- Print out account statements

Important: Make sure that you have enough money in your account for all withdrawals and payments, otherwise no payment will be made and you will have to pay fees.

💡 Find out exactly how much a current account costs each month and what services the bank offers in return. Set up a standing order or SEPA direct debit for regular payments (rent, electricity, etc.).

Opening an account

You decide which bank you would like to have an account with. Make an appointment to open an account. As you will need to prove your identity, take your ID with you. If you do not speak German, bring a language helper with you.

If you are in the asylum process or have a tolerated stay permit and do not have an ID card, you can also open a current account. The proof of arrival or the notification of toleration is sufficient as proof of identity. If you need support, please contact the refugee and integration counselling service. As long as you have the payment card and are not working, you do not need a current account; it will only incur additional costs.

Important information on using the EC card

After opening the account, you will receive an EC card with a four-digit PIN code. Sign the back of the EC card and memorise the PIN code. You will need the PIN code for cashless payments and for withdrawing money from ATMs. Be sure to keep your card and PIN code separate!

If you want to withdraw cash, use your bank's ATMs, then it is free of charge. If you enter the PIN code incorrectly three times at the ATM, the EC card will be withdrawn and blocked. In this case, please contact your bank.

If you lose your debit card or it is stolen, you must have it blocked immediately so that no one else can use it. This is possible around the clock at 116116 around the clock. Tell them your sort code and account number. Then ask your bank for a new debit card.

If you need help using your debit card correctly, ask your bank or friends who are familiar with Germany and whom you trust.

Shopping with little money

Clothing and children's clothing

There are many ways to buy second-hand clothes and shoes. This is not only sustainable, but also saves money. Many children's daycare centres or church communities hold bazaars where you can buy clothes, toys and baby equipment at low prices. Social organisations often offer cheap clothes in shops. Here are some examples.

Food

Shopping for groceries

There are many inexpensive discount stores and supermarkets in Germany. You can buy food for your everyday needs there. Food from special countries or regions of the world can be found in a well-stocked supermarket or in special markets and shops in the cities. There are also grocery shops that specialise in products and foods that are halal or kosher.

People with little money (e.g. low pension, benefits from the social welfare office or job centre) can get food and hygiene products from the "Tafeln" for a small contribution towards costs. To be able to go to the food banks, you need a customer card from the food banks, which shows that you are in need. You can go to the food bank office with your ID, registration certificate and a pension certificate or a notice from the job centre or social welfare office and have the card issued.

Consumer advice centre

The consumer advice centre informs and supports consumers in the area of private consumption. Here you can get reliable information on topics such as money, insurance, food, the environment, health and care, energy, travel and contracts.

The consumer advice centre is an association. Counselling costs money. If you have little money, you have to pay less or nothing at all.

Typical questions are:

Do I have to pay for television?

Can I watch films or listen to music on the internet?

How do I use apps safely?

What is a bank allowed to do with an account, loan or debt?

How can I get out of a contract?

Can I eat that?

Why do I have to pay for my own electricity in my flat?

Information from the consumer advice centre on various topics for migrants is available in several languages here.
