They play live music - sometimes even during a somersault! They use their bodies, instruments and voices. "Tridiculous" means: The three silly ones - and that is exactly their motto: fun, movement and great ideas.

The NN Theater with their theatre play Holmes & Watson

Many people in Europe are afraid: of war, poverty, flight and conflict. There are also problems in the UK: populism, hatred and Brexit. Time for Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson! With courage, humour and a clear mind, they search for the truth. A ghost dog on the moor, a curse on the Baskerville family - but often everything is different than it seems. The NN Theater Köln turns the well-known story into an exciting and political piece of theatre. It is serious, funny and easy to understand. Theatre for everyone - with humour against fear.

20.08.2025: Contemporary circus from 19:30 in the Stadtgarten

📍 Stadtgartenallee, 58099 Hagen

Collektiv ContAKT with the play Foley

Foley is a modern circus piece with live music. Five artists and a musician show how different a team can be - and how music can bring them together. The music is made live: with vocals, beatbox, saxophone and more. Everything is recorded and immediately played back as a beat. A red cable connects the stage - it brings chaos, but also cohesion. Foley is full of movement, emotion and fun. An experience between acrobatics and sound.
