Hagen Adult Education Centre (VHS)

The Hagen Adult Education Centre (VHS) offers a range of language courses. New German as a foreign language courses at various levels start at the beginning of the semester in August and January. They are aimed at people who do not have access to integration courses, do not need a language certificate and simply want to improve their German language skills. These courses take place in the evening and are particularly suitable for employees.

In addition to German courses and well-known languages such as English, French, Spanish and Italian, courses can also be booked in Arabic, Finnish, Japanese, Modern Greek, Dutch, Polish, Portuguese and Russian. There are courses for beginners and advanced learners.

You can find the complete range of languages here.

For information on the programme and registration, please contact Katharine Filusch, head of Foreign Languages.
