

VdK Bavaria Social Association

The VdK is a modern social association. It offers help for pensioners, people with disabilities, the chronically ill, people in need of care and their relatives, families, older workers and the unemployed. Its expertise rests in social law: The VdK sees itself as an advocate for socially disadvantaged people. In Aschaffenburg, there is advice on questions of social law and help with applications, objection and complaint procedures regarding:

- Statutory pension insurance
- Statutory health insurance
- Statutory long-term care insurance
- Statutory accident insurance
- Disability law
- The "Arbeitsförderungsgesetz" (Employment Promotion Act) or unemployment benefit
- Basic income support for jobseekers/ALG II
- Basic income support in old age and in the event of reduced earning capacity
- War Victims' and Soldiers' Pensions
- Rehabilitation

Contact:

VdK-Kreisverband Aschaffenburg

Brentanostraße 1

63739 Aschaffenburg

Phone 06021/22876 or 06021/362664

E-mail: kv-aschaffenburg@vdk.de

Homepage of the VdK in Aschaffenburg

