
Immigration office

Every foreign person travelling to Germany from abroad in order to live and work there requires a residence permit. The foreigners authority (Ausländerbehörde) is the first port of call for foreigners travelling to Germany.

The Foreigners' Registration Office will advise you on all matters relating to your stay in Germany.

Would you like to stay in Germany for longer? Then there are many questions to clarify about your stay in Germany.

Anyone coming to Germany can seek advice from the Foreigners' Registration Office. There are many legal questions regarding residence in Germany. Decisions are made according to residence law.

You will be advised on these issues by the staff at the Foreigners' Registration Office:

- Permission to stay
- toleration (Duldung)
- Residence permit
- Title for permanent residence (Niederlassungserlaubnis)
- Permission to work
- Questions about changing your place of residence (Wohnsitzauflage)
- Residence for relatives and family of EU citizens
- Travel documents for refugees and stateless persons

Ausländerbehörde Landkreis Heidekreis

📍 Vogteistraße 19, 29683 Bad Fallingbommel

☎ +49 \(0\) 51629703335162970333)

@ ZPK-Auslaenderbehoerde@heidekreis.de

🕒 Monday to Thursday from 08.00 - 12.00

Appointments only possible!