

"Jugendamt" (Youth Welfare Office)

Children's rights are important. Every child deserves to be respected and loved. Do you have a child? Then make sure you bring them up in accordance with their rights as a child. This is important for your child's wellbeing. For more information, see the chapter on children's rights.

The Youth Welfare Office (Jugendamt) supports parents in raising children and youth. Everyone can contact the Youth Welfare Office free of charge. Are you a child or young person with problems? Then you can contact the Youth Welfare Office.

Responsibilities of the Youth Welfare Office (Jugendamt):

- support young people in their individual and social development
- Giving parents advice and support on bringing up children
- Protecting children and young people
- Creating a positive environment for young people and families
- Avoiding and dismantling barriers
- Have you had a baby? Then the Youth Welfare Office will contact you after a few weeks. They will want to visit you at home. You can use the
- Get to know the Youth Welfare Office. You will be given a whole folder with information and services. These are important for your child and your family.

Unaccompanied minor refugees are also subject to the Youth Welfare Act. This means: the case goes to the Youth Welfare Office.
