Search for a flat

Would you like to rent a flat? You can search for flats here:

- via search engines on the Internet
- in the classifieds section of daily and weekly newspapers
- in the advertising section of the official gazettes of towns and municipalities
- on information boards in shops
- on social media
- ask friends and acquaintances.

Please note: You can also create an advert yourself in which you describe which flat you are looking for. This may incur costs.

What does the rent consist of?

- Basic rent: Rent per square metre (sqm) of living space per month. Some towns and municipalities have a rent index. You can find the local rent per square metre in this rent index.
- Service charges: Costs for heating, hot water, cold water, rubbish charges, caretaker/janitor and so on (= operating costs).

Cold rent + ancillary costs = warm rent

Electricity costs as well as telephone and internet costs must be paid separately.

Please note: You will receive a service charge statement every year. This shows how high the annual service charges are. You may have to pay an additional amount (for example, because you have used more heat than previously calculated). However, you may also receive a refund (for example, because you have used less hot water than previously calculated).

The rental deposit must be paid separately. It is a security for the landlord or landlady. The maximum amount for the deposit is 3 basic rents. You will receive the deposit back when you move out if you leave the flat without any defects.

What do you have to do if you find a flat?

For people with their own income

- Once you have found a flat, you should arrange a viewing appointment as soon as possible. If you do not speak German well, take someone with you to help you. Ask about the rental costs (basic rent and ancillary costs). Is the size of the flat suitable for the rent? Are the service charges reasonable?
- After the appointment, you should quickly let the person offering the flat know whether you would like to rent it.
- Before you sign the tenancy agreement, make sure you know how much the deposit is (usually 1-3 basic rents) and how the renovation is organised.

For people without income who receive benefits

The rental agreement must be submitted to the local employment promotion/job centre or the asylum seeker benefits authority for approval. They will check whether the flat is suitable. If approval is granted, you may sign the tenancy agreement and move in.

For your information: Important abbreviations on the subject of tenancy agreements can be found here.

I have found a flat

If you receive money from the job centre or the district office, you must observe the following:

Important: You must not sign the tenancy agreement yet, but must first have it approved.

Firstly, you must obtain a cost estimate from your future landlord.

This should include:

- The amount of the rent (costs)
- The amount of ancillary costs (heating, water, electricity)
- The amount of the deposit
- Possible graduated rent (automatic rent increase)

You must take the cost estimate to the Job Centre / Offenburg District Office. They will check the cost estimate.

If everything is in order, they will approve it.

If you do not have a residence requirement in your document for refugees or electronic residence permit, you may sign the rental agreement.

If you do have a residence requirement, you must submit an application to the immigration authority.

Important:

Before you sign a tenancy agreement, take a close look! This checklist can help you with this. The checklist is available in German, English and Arabic.

I have moved

Registering with the residents' registration office

As soon as you have moved into your new home, you must register with your new local authority within two weeks. To do this, you will need a landlord's certificate from your landlord. If you miss the two-week deadline, you may be fined.

Ask at the town hall for the forms or check the homepage of the town hall.

💡 Inform all important parties of your new address
(bank, district office/job centre, insurance company, employer, immigration office and others) or submit a redirection request. Please make sure that your name is on the letterbox.

House rules

The house rules apply to all residents of the house and regulate their living together. They contain rights and duties.

The most important contents are:

Noise: All residents in the house are responsible for not making noise. As a rule, special consideration must be shown from 13:00 to 15:00 and from 22:00 to 06:00. This is quiet time. On Sundays and public holidays, the whole day is quiet time. For example, you should not vacuum or listen to loud music during the quiet hours.

Ventilate: You should open the windows at least once a day to ventilate. This will prevent mould from growing, for example.

Waste disposal: Rubbish must be disposed of in the bins provided. There are different bins for plastic, for paper, for fruit and vegetable waste (organic waste) and for other waste. You can find more information here.

Sorting waste in the household

Sorting and disposing of waste

There are different types of waste. The different wastes have to be separated. Then they are disposed of. This is the responsibility of the waste management office. Separating waste is a very important contribution to protecting the environment.

Waste calendars contain dates for disposal. The waste calendar is free of charge and can be collected from the town hall.

Here are the most important sorting instructions

So wird im Ortenaukreis sortiert

Separate Sammlungen gibt es für Grünabfälle, Sperrmüll und Problemabfälle (Farben, Lacke, Altmedikamente ...).
Für Textilien und Korken sind in verschiedenen Städten und Gemeinden Sammelbehältnisse vorhanden.
Darüber hinaus bestehen bei den kreiseigenen Abfallanlagen für die meisten Abfallarten Abgabemöglichkeiten.

Used glass

You must throw glass containers into collection containers.
You may throw the glass in from Monday to Saturday from 08:00 to 19:00.
Glass bottles, preserving jars and tins belong in the collection containers for glass.
You must separate the glass according to colour. And put it in the right collection container.

Waste with harmful substances

Waste containing harmful substances is harmful to health and the environment. Harmful substances are, for example: paints and varnishes, cleaning agents, batteries. Therefore, waste with hazardous substances must not be disposed of in the residual waste. This waste must be handed in at the pollutant collection point.

What is a recycling centre?

A recycling yard is a place in your town or municipality. You can hand in recyclable materials there. Here you can find the locations and

What is a green waste collection site?

As a private person, you can dispose of your green waste (garden waste) free of charge.

How do I dispose of bulky waste, scrap metal and refrigerators?

Information on bulky waste can be found on the homepage of the Ortenaukreis Waste Management Office. You can apply online for the collection of bulky waste, scrap metal or cooling appliances:

Religion

In Germany there is freedom of religion. Freedom of religion is a fundamental right, which is stated in Article 4 of the Basic Law \(GG; Grundgesetz\).

This means that no one must be told what to believe. No one may be discriminated against because of their religion. One can live out one's faith as one sees fit, as long as it does not violate any laws.

This video explains freedom of religion.

Tradition and carnival

Traditions and customs are very important in the Ortenau district. Maypole planting, herbal tuft consecration, Kilwi, castle festivals and much more tell of the past. A very special tradition is carnival (=Fasnacht, Fasend, Fasnet, Fasching). From Epiphany to Ash Wednesday, every town and every guild celebrates its own traditions and rituals.

Originally, Fastnacht was just what its name suggests: the night before the beginning of Lent. In Christianity, Lent begins on Ash Wednesday and lasts until Easter.

You can search for other events in the Ortenau district here.
