

Educational counselling centres in the district of Recklinghausen

We provide information and support to anyone seeking advice:

- if you have questions as a parent or family member
- if you work with children at school or in a day care centre, for example
- if the children in question live in the district of Recklinghausen

You can also contact us if you have any questions as a child or young person

- for school problems
- in the event of problems or disputes within the family or with friends
- for anxiety or other worries
- or on other topics in your life

We offer:

- Information on parenting and family issues
- Advice on these issues
- diagnostic clarifications
- Measures to change the problem situation

Our offer:

- is free of charge,
- takes place on a voluntary basis,
- is subject to the duty of confidentiality on the basis of the statutory provisions

We help with family issues, for example if:

- Children or parents have cause for concern
- Disputes in the family determine everyday life
- Rules are not observed
- there are problems in day care centres, schools and clubs

Our team consists of experts in the fields of psychology, education, social pedagogy, social work and curative education
