

Interesting facts about Rostock

Welcome to Rostock.

Rostock is a large city in the federal state of Mecklenburg-Vorpommern. Around 210,000 people live here. Rostock is located on the Baltic Sea and has a long tradition. There is a university in Rostock. It is already very old. That's why Rostock is called a Hanseatic and university city. Rostock has a female mayor. Her name is Eva-Maria Kröger. She is the head of the authorities. Rostock has a citizenry. These are people who live in Rostock. They were elected to a city parliament and make many decisions for the city.

There are 31 districts. The districts are very different. In some parts of the city there are many individual houses. In other parts of the city there are large blocks of flats. Many different people live together here. There is a district and meeting centre in almost every district. People can meet and socialise here. There are leisure activities for everyone. You can also get advice here. If you want to do something voluntary, you can get in touch here.