

Schmalkalden University of Applied Sciences

There is a university in Schmalkalden.

Over 2,900 people are currently studying there. Of these, 1,400 come from other countries. The school is international and has agreements with universities from many countries.

The university offers innovative degree programmes. The campus has short distances. There are modern laboratory and library facilities. The atmosphere between lecturers and students is personal. There is also a hall of residence on campus.

The university offers degree programmes in the following areas:

- Electrical Engineering
- Computer science
- Mechanical Engineering
- Business Law and
- economics

You can earn your Bachelor's or Master's degree there. Dual and distance learning programmes are also possible.

There are also degree programmes that are only available in English.

All information and the degree programmes can be found here.

Contact:

Hochschule Schmalkalden

📍 Blechhammer 9, 98574 Schmalkalden

✉️ info@hs-schmalkalden.de

☎️ +49 \(0\) 36836880