
Public transport

Bus

You can use various bus routes in Wertheim. There are also connections to Würzburg at the central bus station in Wertheim. Wertheim is connected to the Rhine-Neckar transport network.

You can search for bus connections here.

Information on various tickets and prices can be found here.

You will find the mobility centre in the station building. There you can buy tickets, book car-sharing and get information on timetables.

You can also find timetables for the bus routes at every stop, in the VRN app or the Deutsche Bahn app.

On-demand taxi (Ruftaxi)

In towns and villages with few bus connections, it is possible to book a taxi on call. Important information and the procedure can be found here.

Train

There is also a railway station in Wertheim with connections to regional transport services.

You can search for train connections here. You can also look for train connections in the Deutsche Bahn app.

The €49 ticket has been available in Germany since May 2023. With this ticket, you can use regional transport throughout Germany and pay €49 per month.

Regional transport includes bus, tram, regional train and underground.

You can find information about the €49 ticket here.